H&S Companies Congratulates Newest Partner, Scott Hunt, CPA

Muskegon, Mich. (January 28, 2014) - H&S Companies is excited to announce Scott Hunt, CPA as their newest partner. Scott is located in the Muskegon office, and has been a part of the H&S team for four years. Scott focuses mainly on restaurants, breweries and service businesses, and is gearing up for a busy season ahead.

As a graduate of Grand Valley State University, earning a BBA in Accounting, Scott began his career with a Grand Rapids firm. “Scott has nearly 35 years of experience in the hospitality industry and has helped us expand our client base in that area,” said Muskegon Managing Partner, Ward VanDam. “He is also a member of the Brewer’s Professional Alliance, a group of professionals formed to help breweries operate and grow successfully.”

Scott lives in Ferrysburg with his wife Carol and is a member of the Grand Haven Chamber of Commerce, the Michigan Restaurant Association, the American Institute of CPAs (AICPA), and the Michigan Association of CPAs (MACPA)
